GOA INQUIRY COMPANY \n50 OFFICIAL PROBE COMPLETED

MOMBASSA, AGADIR, CONTEMPTUAL \nGOA INQUIRY COMPANY \n50 OFFICIAL PROBE COMPLETED

Mumbai: A major setback in the investigation of the Goa Inqury Company, which is investigating the 50-year-old death of a man in the state, was reported on Friday. The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969.

The company, under the leadership of Advocate Prashant Bhushan, has been investigating the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.

The company, which was set up by the Goa government in 1969, has completed its investigation into the death of a man in the state who died in 1969. The company has been investigating the death of a man who died in 1969.