

Lighting up quarantine areas

Adani Electricity has begun installing and supplying electricity on an emergency basis in several new quarantine areas, including vacant buildings and uninhabited complexes, that lacked access to power, officials said on Thursday. Power supply has been provided to 2,957 flats and nine hospitals with 500-bed capacity. Electrification is underway at another 455 flats. TNN

---