

ADANI ELECTRICITY MUMBAI LIMITED
VIGIL MECHANISM POLICY

1. PREFACE

Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited (herein after referred as "AEML") requires to establish a vigil mechanism for directors and employees to report the genuine concerns as per the provisions of the section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 enabling stakeholders, including individual employees and their representative bodies, to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices.

2. DEFINITIONS

"Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company.

"Company" means the Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited.

"Employee" means all the present employees and Directors of the Company (whether working in India or abroad).

"Protected Disclosure" means any communication in good faith that discloses or demonstrates information that may evidence unethical or improper activity.

"Subject" means a person or group of persons against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made or evidence gathered during the course of an investigation.

"Vigilance and Ethics Officer" means an officer appointed to receive protected disclosures from whistle blowers, maintaining records thereof, placing the same before the Managing Director and CEO for his disposal and informing the Whistle Blower the result thereof.

"Whistle Blower" is an employee or group of employees who make a Protected Disclosure under this Policy and also referred in this policy as complainant.

3. OBJECTIVE OF THE POLICY

The purpose and objective of this Policy is to provide a framework to promote responsible and secure whistle blowing. It protects the employees wishing to raise a concern about serious irregularities within the Company.

To maintain the standards and objectives mentioned above, the Company encourages its directors and employees who have genuine concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. A Vigil (Whistle Blower) mechanism provides a channel to the employees and Directors to report to the management concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Codes of conduct or policy. The mechanism provides for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees and Directors to avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Managing Director and CEO in exceptional cases.

This policy, however, neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and / or colleagues in general.

4. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

This Policy covers malpractices and events which have taken place, suspected to have taken place, misuse or abuse of authority, fraud or suspected fraud, violation of company rules, manipulations, negligence causing danger to public health and safety, misappropriation of monies, and other matters or activity on account of which the interest of the Company is affected and formally reported by whistle blowers. This Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise serious concerns within the Company prior to seeking resolution outside the Company.

5. REPORTING OF PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

All employees of the company are eligible to make protected disclosures under the policy in relation to matters concerning the company. The Company does not tolerate any malpractice, impropriety, statutory non-compliance or wrongdoing. This Policy ensures that employees are empowered to pro-actively bring to light such instances without fear of reprisal, discrimination or adverse employment consequences.

- i. This Policy is not, however, intended to question financial or business decisions taken by the Company that are not Protected Disclosures nor should it be used as a means to reconsider any matters which have already been addressed pursuant to disciplinary or other internal procedures of the Company. This policy shall generally not be used for issues related to routine Human Resource issues (promotions, pay, improper attire, punctuality, job performance, etc.) unless those issues relate to actual or possible misconduct. For example, if an employee is denied a promotion in retaliation for refusing the sexual advances of a superior, that activity impacts the employees career but should still be reported.

All Protected Disclosures should be reported in writing by the Whistle Blower as soon as possible after the Whistle Blower becomes aware of the same so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised.

To make more effective and controlled mechanism, employees can lodge a Protected Disclosure to the Chairman's Office in any one of the following ways:

- I. By sending an email to whistleblower@adani.com with the subject "Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy".
- II. By sending letter in a closed and secured envelop and super scribed as "Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy" to the Chairman's Office, Mr Anil Sardana, Adani House, East Wing, Shantigram, S. G. Highway, Ahmedabad 380 058. If possible, letters should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English or Hindi or Gujarati or Marathi.

However, employees can lodge a Protected Disclosure anonymously without disclosing the identity. A protected disclosure received anonymously will be evaluated by the Company for investigation. In exercising this discretion, the following factors will be taken into consideration:

- I. The seriousness of the issue raised;
- II. The creditability of the concern; and
- III. The likelihood of confirming the allegations from attributable sources.

In respect of all Protected Disclosures, after review by the Chairman's Office, those concerning the employees at the levels of Vice Presidents and above shall be forwarded to the Managing Director and CEO and those concerning other employees shall be forwarded to the Vigilance and Ethics Officer of the Company as per the following details.

Mr Kandarp Patel
Managing Director and CEO Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited
Devidas Lane, Off SVP Road
Borivali (W), Mumbai 400103

Mr. Manoj Sharma, Vigilance and Ethics Officer
Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited
Devidas Lane, Off SVP Road
Borivali (W), Mumbai 400103

In case a Protected Disclosure is received directly by the Managing Director and CEO or Vigilance and Ethics Officer, the same shall be forwarded to the Chairman's Office by the Managing Director and CEO or Vigilance and Ethics Office, as the case may be.

An acknowledgement of receipt of any Protected Disclosure will be issued to the Whistle Blower by aeml.ethics@adani.com. To the extent feasible given concerns regarding potential legal liability, reputational damage and the rights of those accused of misconduct, the Whistle Blower should be kept informed of any updates to, and resolution of, the complaint.

Complainants are advised not to write their name / address on the envelope. The Managing Director and CEO or Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall assure that in case any further clarification is required he will get in touch with the complainant, and a complainant may supplement her or his original report at any time if additional relevant information becomes available.

Those who raise concerns or report suspected misconduct are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. The Company encourages openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this Policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken. The Company is committed to ensuring that no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of making any Protected Disclosure pursuant to this Policy.

The Whistle blower's role is that of a reporting party. Whistle blowers ultimately do not resolve allegations of misconduct; neither can they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted.

Although a Whistle blower is not required to furnish any more information than what he/she wishes to disclose, it is essential for the Company to have all critical information in order to enable the Company to effectively evaluate and investigate the complaint. It is difficult for the Company to proceed with an investigation on a complaint, which does not contain all the critical information such as the specific charge. The complaint or disclosure must therefore provide as much detail and be as specific as possible in order to facilitate the investigation as well as to allow proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern and the urgency in conducting preliminary investigation, as required.

To the extent possible, the complaint or disclosure must include the following:

1. The employee, and/or outside party or parties involved;
2. The sector of the Company where it happened (Location, Department, office);
3. When did it happen: a date or a period or time;
4. Type of concern (what happened);
  - a) Financial reporting;
  - b) Legal matter;
  - c) Management action;
  - d) Employee misconduct; and/or
  - e) Health & safety and environmental issues.
5. Submit proof or identify where proof can be found, if possible;
6. Who to contact for more information, if possible; and/or
7. Prior efforts to address the problem, if any.

6. RECEIPT, INVESTIGATION AND DISPOSAL OF PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

On receipt of the Protected Disclosure, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer or the Managing Director and CEO, as the case may be, shall make a record of the Protected Disclosure and also ascertain from the complainant whether he was the person who made the protected disclosure or not. He shall also carry out initial investigation either himself or by involving any other Officer of the Company. The record will include:

- a. Brief facts;
- b. Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously by anyone on the subject, and if so, the outcome thereof;
- c. Details of actions taken by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Managing Director and CEO processing the complaint
- d. Findings and recommendations.

7. Investigation

The decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact finding process. Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation. He shall have a duty to co-operate with the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / the Managing Director and CEO or any of the Officers appointed by him in this regard and shall be subject to strict disciplinary action up to and including immediate dismissal, if they fail to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately provide false information during an investigation.

Subject(s) have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Investigators and/ or the Whistle Blower. He has a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witness shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by him.

Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, he will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrong doing against him shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation. He has a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigations. If allegations are not sustained, he should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of him and the Company.

The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the protected disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Managing Director and CEO deems fit.

All information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary or appropriate to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations. The Company reserves the right to refer any concerns or complaints regarding Protected Disclosure to appropriate external regulatory authorities.

8. Disposal

If an investigation leads the Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ the Managing Director and CEO to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ the Managing Director and CEO shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action commensurate with the severity of the offence, as it may deem fit. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ the Managing Director and CEO, as the case may forward his copy of the report/findings to the Chairman's Office. The company may also take reasonable and necessary measures to prevent any further violations which may have resulted in a complaint being made. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall submit a report to the Managing Director and CEO on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any.

A complainant who makes intentionally false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the Subject to the Vigilance and Ethics Officer or Managing Director and CEO shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

9. PROTECTION

No Personnel who, in good faith, makes a disclosure or lodges a complaint in accordance with this Policy shall suffer reprisal, discrimination or adverse employment consequences.

Accordingly, the Company prohibits discrimination, retaliation or harassment of any kind against a Whistle blower, who based on his/her reasonable belief that one or more Protected Disclosure has occurred or are, occurring, reports that information. Any employee, who retaliates against a Whistle blower who has raised a Protected Disclosure or Complaint in good faith, will be subject to strict disciplinary action up to and including immediate termination of employment or termination of his/her relationship with the Company.

If any employee, who makes a disclosure in good faith, believes that he/she is being subjected to discrimination, retaliation or harassment for having made a report under this Policy, he/she must immediately report those facts to his/her supervisor, manager or point of contact. If, for any reason, he/she do not feel comfortable discussing the matter with these persons, he/she should bring the matter to the attention of the Chairman's office, or Vigilance and Ethics Officer or the Managing Director and CEO of the Company in exceptional cases. It is imperative that such employee brings the matter to the Company's attention promptly so that any concern of reprisal, discrimination or adverse employment consequences can be investigated and addressed promptly and appropriately.

The company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

The Whistle Blower shall have right to access the Managing Director and CEO of the Company directly in exceptional cases and the Managing Director and CEO is authorized to prescribe suitable directions in this regard.

10. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS

The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall maintain documentation of all Protected Disclosures or reports subject to this Policy. The documentation shall include any written submissions provided by the complainant, any other Company documents identified in the complaint or by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / the Managing Director and CEO as relevant to the complaint, a summary of the date and manner in which the complaint was received and any response to the complainant. All such documentation shall be retained by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer for a minimum of five (5) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more, from the date of receipt of the complaint. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent reasonably practicable depending on the requirements and nature of the investigation, as indicated above.

Electricity

11. AMENDMENT TO THIS POLICY

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. Modification may be necessary, among other reasons, to maintain compliance with local, state, central and federal regulations and/or accommodate organizational changes within the Company. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to them in writing.
