2500 Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited employees donate Clothes

The clothes were distributed to locals living in the hamlets of National Park, Borivali

Mumbai, 11 February 2020: As an employee engagement programme, AEML appealed to its employees across all the divisions to donate their good condition old clothes. Through this first phase of community engagement initiative over 2500 employees came forward and donated clothes to those in need. In order to help the underprivileged, AEML then donated these clothes to various communities spread across its distribution areas such as Tumni pada and Chuna pada situated in National Park, Borivali.

During the collection drive, over 70 boxes of clothes collected by AEML team were distributed to the population living in the respective hamlets so that it can benefit and fulfil basic requirement of maximum people living in those areas.

AEML looking at the inspiring responses from their employees aims to continue this drive every year and donate these essentials in the disempowered areas.
