Mumbai, April 27, 2021: Adani Electricity Mumbai Limited (AEML), the power Distribution company catering to Mumbai's western and eastern suburbs has continued to foster its philosophy of touching lives beyond business goals.

The company recently trained a group of tribal youths from villages neighboring its thermal power plant in Dahanu to make face masks and subsequently employed them to produce One lakh mask that were distributed for free across its Distribution area especially in slums and tribal hamlets like Jhamjhad Pada, Gorai, Chunnapada and other hamlets at National Park Borivali and Aarey Colony, Goregoan.

Speaking on the one lakh distribution of mask, AEML spokesperson said, "The purpose of this initiative was to go beyond our philosophy of what we mean by 'Power of Service'. While our core objective is to illuminate lives through uninterrupted power supply, we believe empowering the communities in which we operate, through increased awareness about their well-being and employability is aligned to the Adani Group's vision of building a nation from its grassroots."

While distributing masks across the slum and tribal hamlets, the AEML teams also educated the locals on the importance of maintaining social distancing and other basic hygiene.

Recently it also organized a Blood Donation camp in association with the State Blood Transfusion Council and Adani Foundation across AEML offices as the city is facing severe shortage of blood. Close to 600 employees came forward and donated the blood.
